

Contents

	Acknowledgments	ix
1	Introduction: Reconfiguring Sainthood	1
I	A Power above Ourselves	9
1	“And They Had No Comforter”: John Brown and the “Everlasting Negro” Question	11
2	John Brown’s Heritage	20
3	Revival, Resistance, and Abolition in the Time of John Brown	30
II	A Good Cause and a Sovereign God	43
4	The Early Years: Autobiography and History	45
5	Millennial Hopes, Abolitionist Awakenings	57
6	“This Path of Life”: From Ohio to Pennsylvania	68
III	Providence and Principle	81
7	Citizen Brown’s Calvinist Community	83
8	The Pursuit of Success and the Disappointments of Providence	95
9	Of Vows and Tears	108
IV	In Times of Difficulty	121
10	Belted Knights and Practical Shepherds	123
11	“We Are Tossing Up and Down”	136
12	The Practical Shepherd in Springfield	146

V	Big Difficulties and Firm Footholds	161
13	A Cold and Snowy Canaan Land	163
14	“So We Go”: Failed Ventures and Disappointing Outcomes	177
15	“All the Encouragement in My Power”	189
VI	Enduring Hardness	203
16	Ohio and Beyond	205
17	“Kansas the Outpost”: An Overview	216
18	Pottawatomie and the Fatherless	223
VII	I Will Raise a Storm	237
19	“The Language of Providence”	239
20	“This Spark of Fire”	252
21	“My Public Murder”	264
	Epilogue: A Saint’s Rest	279
	Notes	285
	Selected Bibliography	335
	Index	345
	About the Author	349