

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

*Foreword by Carola Suárez-Orozco: Designated “Others”:
Young, Muslim, and American* xiii

- 1 Growing Up in the Shadow of Moral Exclusion 1
Meet Aisha: Challenging and Laughing Her Way through Suspicion, Surveillance, and Low Expectations 25
- 2 Muslim Americans: History, Demography, and Diversity 32
*Meet Sahar: A Hyphen with Holes in It . . . Allowing
Her to Sometimes Fall Through* 54
- 3 Moral Exclusion in a “Nation of Immigrants”:
An American Paradox 58
Meet Yeliz: A Young Woman of Conviction, Distinct across Contexts 81
- 4 The Weight of the Hyphen: Discrimination and Coping 85
Meet Ayyad: “A Regular Cute Guy” 118
- 5 Negotiating the Muslim American Hyphen: Integrated,
Parallel, and Conflictual Paths 121
Meet Taliya: Seeking Safe Spaces for Social Analysis and Action 151
- 6 Contact Zones: Negotiating the Space between
Self and Others 155
Meet Masood: Grounded in Islam, Crossing Borders 187

7 Researching Hyphenated Selves across Contexts 193

Appendix A: Survey Measures 209

Appendix B: Individual Interview Protocol 211

Appendix C: Focus-Group Protocols 214

Appendix D: Identity Maps Coding Sheet 218

Notes 221

References 223

Index 237

About the Authors 245

Color maps appear as a group following p. 80.