

---

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
PART I Frontiers and Encounter	7
1 Sublimus Deus (1537)	8
2 Meeting of a Spanish Missionary with a Navajo Apache Chief (1630)	10
3 The English Jesuits Establish the Maryland Mission (1634)	12
4 Brebeuf, “Instructions to Our Fathers Who Shall Be Sent to the Hurons” (1637)	15
5 Maryland’s Act of Religious Toleration (1649)	17
6 Hennepin’s “Description of Missionary Difficulties with Natives” (1697)	19
7 Massachusetts’s “Act Against Jesuits and Priests” (1700)	23
8 Report on Catholicism in the English Colonies (1773)	26
9 First American Report to the Propaganda Fide (1785)	28
10 John Carroll’s Letter on Lay Trusteeship (1786)	31
11 Report on Catholic Life in New Orleans (1795)	33
12 First Council of Baltimore (1829)	36
13 Benedicta Riepp Defends Nuns’ Autonomy (1857, 1859)	38
Further Suggested Reading	39
PART II Inside/Outside	41
14 Alexis de Tocqueville on American Catholics (1835)	42
15 John Hughes Condemns the New York Public School Society (1841)	45

16	The American Protestant Association (1842)	49
17	Archbishop Hughes Explains American Liberty to Rome (1858)	51
18	“Roman Instruction on Catholic Children in Public Schools” (1875)	54
19	Isaac Hecker on Catholic Scholasticism in America (1887)	58
20	John Ireland, Introduction to the Life of Father Hecker (1891)	61
21	Testem Benevolentiae Condemns “Americanism” (1899)	64
22	“Report on the Religious Conditions of Puerto Ricans in New York” (1951)	68
23	John LaFarge on Race Relations (1956)	71
24	Patty Crowley and the Birth Control Commission (1965)	74
25	U.S. Bishops on “The Challenge of Peace” (1983)	82
26	Hispanic Deacons to Cardinal O’Connor (1988)	88
27	Michael Novak on the “Spirit of Capitalism” (1993)	91
	Further Suggested Reading	94
PART III Catholicism and the Intellectual Life		95
28	John Tracy Ellis, “American Catholics and the Intellectual Life” (1955)	95
29	John Courtney Murray, We Hold These Truths (1960)	101
30	Madeleva Wolff, “Educating Our Daughters as Women” (1961)	106
31	“Land O’ Lakes” Statement on Catholic Universities (1967)	110
32	Flannery O’Connor on Being a “Catholic” Writer (1969)	115
33	Andrew Greeley, “Models for Viewing American Catholicism” (1977)	119
34	Elizabeth Johnson, “To Speak Rightly of God” (1992)	121
	Further Suggested Reading	126
PART IV Politics		127
35	Bishop John England on Slavery (1840)	128
36	Cardinal Gibbons Defends the Knights of Labor (1887)	132

37	John A. Ryan and the Bishops' Program for Social Reconstruction (1919)	139
38	Joseph Nevins, "Education to Catholic Marriage" (1928)	147
39	Dorothy Day, "Loaves and Fishes" (1933)	148
40	Katharine M. Byrne, "Happy Little Wives and Mothers" (1956)	157
41	John F. Kennedy, "Address to Southern Baptist Leaders" (1960)	160
42	"Dignity and the Priest" (1961)	163
43	Dr. John Rock, "The Pill" (1963)	165
44	Kay Toy Fenner, "American Catholic Dating Guidelines" (1963)	169
45	Sister Jean Reidy, C.H.M., "Nuns in Ordinary Clothes" (1967)	171
46	"Statement by Catholic Theologians" and "Dissent in and for the Church" (1968 & 1969)	174
47	Phyllis Schlafly, "What's Wrong with 'Equal Rights' for Women?" (1972)	181
48	Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, "A Consistent Ethic of Life" (1983)	184
49	Richard John Neuhaus, "The Catholic Moment" (1987)	192
50	Andrew Sullivan, "Alone Again, Naturally" (1994)	198
	Further Suggested Reading	210
PART V Worship & the Spiritual Life		213
51	Preparing for Confession (1792)	213
52	"Sunday Morning Mass" (1868)	216
53	The Baltimore Catechism (1885)	220
54	James Cardinal Gibbons, "The Invocation of the Saints" (1892)	221
55	The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary (1897)	225
56	"Litany for the Conversion of America" (1908)	227
57	"The Passion Play of the West" (1910)	230

58	“Youth and Catholic Leadership” (1936)	232
59	William Leonard, S.J., on the Missa Recitata in Wartime (1943–45)	235
60	U.S. Catholic Bishops, “Regulations on Fast and Abstinence” (1951)	237
61	Patrick Peyton & the Family Rosary Crusade (1951)	238
62	American Catholics from World War II to the 1970s: Photographs from the Collections of the Library of Congress	241
63	“How the ‘People of God’ Want to Worship” (1964)	246
64	Father Gommar De Pauw, J.C.D., “The Catholic Traditionalist Manifesto” (1964)	248
65	Thomas Merton, “Fourth and Walnut Vision” (1966)	251
66	Daniel Lowery, CSSR, “A ‘Piety Void?’” (1966)	253
67	Mary Papa, “People Having a Good Time Praying” (1969)	258
68	Garry Wills, “Memories of a Catholic Boyhood” (1972)	263
69	Albert Ottenweller, “A Call to Restructure the Parish” (1975)	271
70	Judith Tate O’Brien, “Presenting My Entire Self to God” (1984)	274
	Further Suggested Reading	277
	Source List	279
	About the Editors	287